- [ ] Find your renewal date. Open Manage Prime Membership in your Amazon account. Note when you're next charged, and whether you pay monthly or yearly.
- [ ] Set a renewal reminder. In Manage Prime Membership, under Next Payment, select Remind me before renewing. It isn't offered within three days of renewal.
- [ ] Compare monthly and annual. Monthly now costs $155.88 over a year, against $99 for the annual plan. If you use Prime all year, the annual plan is cheaper.
- [ ] List what you actually use. Tick off delivery, Prime Video, Amazon Music, Prime Reading and Luna. Decide whether they're worth $99 a year to you.
- [ ] Pause instead of cancelling. If you won't use Prime for a while, pause it for one to three months from Prime Central. Trials and third-party plans can't be paused.
- [ ] End it before renewal if you're done. Select End membership and benefits in Manage Prime Membership. If no one has used a Prime benefit this period, you're due a full refund.
