- [ ] Ask Apple about business use in writing. The AppleCare+ for Mac terms say the plan "is not for your commercial use". Get Apple to confirm your use is covered before you pay.
- [ ] Keep work laptops off AppleCare One. Its terms say devices used mainly for business aren't eligible.
- [ ] Check your exact model's price. Look it up on apple.com/au/applecare and compare one year of the plan with an A$149 or A$429 repair fee.
- [ ] Add the plan in time. Apple says you can buy it from four days after the laptop ships or is picked up, and through Settings on your Mac for 60 days after purchase.
- [ ] Check your business insurance for theft. AppleCare+ for Mac doesn't replace a lost or stolen laptop.
- [ ] Claim faults under the consumer law. Take a defect to the seller. Apple also says it will provide equivalent remedies for 24 months from purchase.
