- [ ] Write down what you pay now. In your X subscription settings, or your Apple or Google Play subscriptions, note the plan, price, currency and renewal date.
- [ ] Compare the checkout total before you switch. The X Subscription's published prices name no currency and exclude tax, so check the currency, tax and total against your current charge.
- [ ] Pick Premium or higher if you switch from X Premium+ and want to keep ad-free scrolling. The $8 Plus tier only reduces ads. The $30 Premium tier is ad-free on most surfaces.
- [ ] Confirm you are willing to give up your X Premium plan for good before you check out. A switch to The X Subscription is permanent, and support can't undo it.
- [ ] Make sure your card can cover the full new price. The refund for unused X Premium time is sent separately, not taken off the checkout amount.
- [ ] Check your app store after switching. Cancel a Google Play subscription that still shows as renewing. For Apple purchases, Apple decides the refund.
- [ ] Review Auto Top-up and spending caps if you use Grok or Cursor. Usage beyond the weekly allowance is charged to top-up credits.
